My name is Li Hua. I am a student in Xinghua Vocational School. I set up a movie club in my school. There were only five people in my club at first. Two months later, in order to get more students to join my club, I gave a short speech. I put on my uniform with my new glasses that day. And I even made a poster by myself. I told my schoolmates about my club proudly. After my speech, many of my schoolmates felt interested. At last, 30 new classmates joined my club.

We organised many activities. We watched some English and Chinese films, talked about the films and shared our feelings. We even made a short movie on our own. We learnt how to work with each other while having fun. My club was a great success.
