

CONTENTS

PART 1 A Panorama 1

LECTURE 1

Approaching Literature 2

Texts:

At the Threshold of Literature 3
Grammar of Literature 11

LECTURE 2

Milestones in the Literary Atlas 15

Texts:

Literary Classics and Literary Canon 16
Read Fiction and Be a Better Leader 26

LECTURE 3

Moment, Milieu and Literature 29

Texts:

Literary Periods 30
Six Pilgrimages for the Lover of Western Literature 39

RESOURCES & LINKS 43

PART 2 Great Minds 45

LECTURE 4

“Not of an Age, But for All Time.” 46

Texts:

Shakespeare, the Genius 47
American Voice of the Enlightenment—Benjamin Franklin 56

LECTURE 5

The Epiphany of Nature 60

Texts:

Wordsworth and His Spirit of Romanticism 61
A River Runs Through Him 70

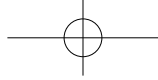

LECTURE 6

Milieu, Men and Women 73

Texts:

A Literature of Her Own 74
The Lost Generation: American Writers of the 1920s 83

RESOURCES & LINKS 87

PART 3 Insights 89

LECTURE 7

The Art of Insight (I) 90

Texts:

Critical Approaches to Literature (I) 91

Traditional Approaches in Practice 99

LECTURE 8

The Art of Insight (II) 102

Texts:

Critical Approaches to Literature (II) 103

Readers and Reading (I) 113

LECTURE 9

Criticism in Evolution 117

Texts:

Five Waves of Revolution in Theoretical Paradigms 118

Readers and Reading (II) 127

RESOURCES & LINKS 131

PART 4 Academic Study and Communication 133

LECTURE 10

Literary Analysis 134

Texts:

Analyzing Literature: A Guide for Students 135

What Characterizes a Good Interpretation? 144

LECTURE 11

Reading as Prelude to Writing 147

Texts:

A Brief Guide to Writing the English Paper (I) 148

Why Is Studying Literature Still Needed Today? (I) 156

LECTURE 12

Creating an Academic Paper 159

Texts:

A Brief Guide to Writing the English Paper (II) 160

Why Is Studying Literature Still Needed Today? (II) 173

RESOURCES & LINKS 177